Tuesday, March 17, 2015

POSTER SESSION I: EDUCATION AND PUBLIC OUTREACH:
EXPANDING OUR REACH THROUGH COLLABORATIVE PROGRAMS AND LESSONS LEARNED
6:00 p.m. Town Center Exhibit Area

Hagerty J. J. Titus T. N. Barlow N. Dye D.
POSTER LOCATION #633
A formalized framework for promoting planetary research and education collaboration in northern Arizona has been established.

Shupla C. Gladney A. Shipp S. Truxillo J. Dalton H. et al.
POSTER LOCATION #634
Lessons from a Train-the-Trainer Professional Development Program [#1940]
This poster will share main findings and evaluation results from a long-term middle school science professional development program being conducted by LPI.

Urquhart M. L.
POSTER LOCATION #635
The Importance of Partnerships and Data Collection in Long Term Programs for Pre-Service and In-Service Science and Mathematics Teachers [#2085]
We detail specifics of data collection and necessity for partnerships to measure the effectiveness of UTD STEM teacher preparation and professional development.

Jones A. J. P. Bleacher L. V. Buxner S. Canipe M.
POSTER LOCATION #636
LRO’s Lunar Workshops for Educators: A Proven Model of Exceptional Professional Development for Teachers [#1898]
We’ll summarize five years of evaluation results and highlight the strengths of the workshop model developed for LRO’s award-winning Lunar Workshops for Educators.

Aubele J. C. Crumpler L. S.
POSTER LOCATION #637
Mars Rover Missions and Science Education: Lessons Learned from a Decade of Education and Public Outreach at the New Mexico Museum of Natural History and Science [#2302]
A decade of EPO using Mars and Mars missions at the New Mexico Museum of Natural History and Science provides lessons on reaching over 2 million participants.

Hutson M. L. Pugh R. N. Ruzicka A. M.
POSTER LOCATION #638
Lessons Learned from Meteorite Public Outreach and Education in the Pacific Northwest [#1690]
The Cascadia Meteorite Laboratory reflects on lessons learned after more than ten years of informal education and public outreach.