Welcome to The Woodlands

THE WOODLANDS IS A PLACE DESIGNED FOR GREAT EXPERIENCES — FROM BEAUTIFUL NATURE TO TOP-TIER AMENITIES, GLOBALLY-RANKED VENUES TO HIDDEN GEMS.

FLYSAFE HOUSTON

George Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH) and William P. Hobby Airport (HOU) have made several enhancements to their facilities and cleaning procedures to protect travelers and employees. Learn more about their FlySafe Houston commitment.

Currently, Texas has no statewide travel restrictions. For the most up-to-date information on international travel restrictions, visit the U.S. State Department travel pages.

We recommend that travelers continue to follow the CDC’s domestic travel guidelines. For updated TSA travel guidelines, visit the TSA COVID-19 information page.

The Woodlands’ hotel and hospitality community is committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of its guests and employees. In addition to following industry-wide Safe Stay guidelines from the American Hotel & Lodging Association, many hotel brands have implemented further safeguarding initiatives. Learn more by visiting the hotels featured on the LPSC Plan Your Visit page.

Welcome to The Woodlands!

As Chairman of the Visit The Woodlands Board of Directors, it is my honor to welcome you to our destination.

The Woodlands is an escape from the ordinary and it’s my hope that you experience a bit of that this week. We are proud to host the 53rd Lunar and Planetary Science Conference in our hometown. The Woodlands has 14 high quality hotels, over 200 award winning restaurants, one of the top amphitheaters in the world, a top 10 arts festival, The Woodlands Children’s Museum and over 11 million square feet of shopping, entertainment and more.

We hope you will explore The Woodlands and experience the ease of our destination. From slow paced swan boats to fast paced hikes through The George Mitchell Nature Preserve, there’s something for everyone amidst the trees. Whether you’re a returning conference attendee or experiencing the Lunar and Science Planetary Conference for the first time, we hope your week in The Woodlands is one to remember.

Thank you for visiting The Woodlands and we hope to see you again soon!

Bruce Rieser
Chairman, Visit The Woodlands Board of Directors
